

Omnipresent [Lyrics, 76 bpm, 4/4]

[Default Arrangement] by Emma Terlizzi

Intro, V1, C, V2, C2, B, Outro

Verse 1

The Word that sang the world to life
A song eternally divine
Nothing's gonna shake You
Nothing can escape You

The light the everlasting light
That shines beyond the bounds of time
Let love illuminate You
Nothing can escape You (No)

Chorus

Infinite and all around
You are infinite and all around
Infinite and all around
You are infinite and all around (You are)

Verse 2

The One who holds all matter and might
Every molecule bows to Your design
You are all sustaining
There is no escaping Your love

Nothing in the world could pull apart
Oh, the beauty of your nature in my heart
For, if all I am is made of You
Then there is no escaping Your love

Chorus 2

Infinite and all around
You are infinite and all around
Infinite and all around (mysterious)
Mysterious and all around

You are infinite and all around (glorious)
You are glorious and all around
You are infinite and all around (beautiful)
You are beautiful and all around

Bridge

The source of every heartbeat
The essence of every burning star
You are resounding in the silence
And as I am still I start to see
All that You are

You are the light that breaks the darkness
The hope when night's relentless
And all that I am is found in who You are
You are The Alpha, The Omega
You are Jesus, You are Savior

Bridge (cont'd)

From the beginning, You are
You are, You are, You are, Oh
You are, You are, You are, Oh

Outro

The light the everlasting light
Will shine beyond the bounds of time
